PAT DUNNE'S 1897 WINNINGS.

Pat Dunne's horses earned $30,830 last year. His nine horses started in 123 races, were first in 49, second in 27, third in 15, unplaced in 32 and won a total of $30,830.

HOW ILLINOIS HAS SUFFERED.

The table and comments below throw a mathematical lime-light upon the evil wrought to the horse breeders of the State of Illinois, by the—let us call it stupidity—of legislative failure in the interest of racing. The figures in the table only show the decrease—necessary—in the mere production of horses. It does not exhibit the more important side issues. They count 50 to 1 in dollars to Illinois, and especially Chicago as to general loss as against breeding loss. The side issues are, racing, selling by auction the action of operating keen and healthful race tracks, and the speculation about such operation. There is a second array of side issues bearing on the action of railroads, hotels and merchants who treat in a high class way with folks who spend money liberally and have no use for a credit department. The ban on racing since 1894 has cost Chicago many millions of dollars and other Illinois towns half as much. The total, conservatively estimated, is about $50,000,000. The table is from the Horse Review of Chicago. So are the comments before it:

"Accurate statistics showing the immense, the almost startling, decrease in the breeding of horses since 1890 in the state of Illinois are contained in Circular 179, a report by the State Board of Agriculture, just issued. This report goes into detail concerning all sorts of farm products and all classes of live stock. It is compiled from the reports of more than 600 correspondents, and the accuracy of their work, year by year, has been proved by the annual returns of the various county and township assessors, so that in dealing with them we are reasonably certain that they can be relied on. Our readers cannot fail to be interested in the tables which give the number of foals in every county, for the years beginning with 1887 and ending with 1896. The one point which stands out most clearly and which shows just where the horse interest stands in its ability to supply the demand of the present market is the tremendous decrease in breeding operations. In 1887, as shown by the tables referred to, there were foaled in Illinois 137,565 colts of all breeds. In 1896 this fell away to 69,913, a total decrease of 67,652, or nearly one-half. During the years 1887 to 1890, inclusive, the number of foals produced in all the counties of the state remained at about the same figure, varying, in many instances, but a few dozen, or at worst, one hundred. The first sharp decline was in 1892, but the bottom was reached in 1896. We have not the space in which to publish all the tables, but have selected twenty counties at random, in order to show just what the ratio of decrease middle of April. She is to start in the Burns has been. The table, as we give it, shows the handicap.

Two stake events will be decided at Oakland the Racing Stakes, for 2-year-olds, and the Baldwin Handicap, at one mile. In the latter event are such horses as Scarborough, Ruinart, Bernardillo, Mount McGregor II, Colonel Wheeler, Altamax, Napamax, Traverser, Howard Mann, May W, The Roman, Vinctor, Installator, Senator Bland, Flashlight, Wheel of Fortune, Judge Denny, St. Lee, Lincoln II, Paul Griggs, Trolley, Buck Massie, Buckwa, Salvation, Ostler Joe, Greyhurst and Fleur de

W. T. Woodard has had Hats Off schooled over the timber and finds him to be such a fine jumper that he contemplates an eastern campaign with him. If he goes east he will take his light weight jockey Dupee with him. It is Mr. Woodard's present intention to buy one or two good horses in the east, and in addition to riding them on the flat Dupee will do the light-

A Louisville, Ky., dispatch to the New York World says that Plaudit, the present favorite for the Kentucky Derby, was clipped not long ago and caught cold. This has caused the colt to fall off twenty pounds in the last two weeks. The colt is reported to be recovering however and will no doubt be in form again long before Kentucky Derby day.

Charley Thorpe's riding in California this winter has really been remarkable. Up to the beginning of this week he had 101 wins to his credit out of 311 mounts. This is an extremely high percentage. Besides he had ridden second 61 times and third 58. Clawson stands second with 79 wins out of 416 mounts and Conley third with 63 out of 231.

and it is doubtful whether Altamax will ever again face the starter. This is to be regretted as the son of Maxim was a greater racehorse than he has ever shown in public.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Winner—B. f, by Midlothian—Paloma.

Start good. Won in a gallop. The next eight were busy. Rowena outclassed her field. She is in keen condition. Towanda ran an excellent race, closing a lot of ground. He was none too well handled. Mordecai was closing at end; poorly ridden, is fit and favors a distance. Ann is a sprinter, yet made up ground and was sadly managed. Rosa was not ready. Fleming was cut off on first and stretch turns. Watch him. Na Pogue has some quality. He was away badly and made up a lot of ground. Watch him. St. Philip is a dasher and a coward. He was used a lot and went to pieces under call. Mainbar was away badly and had an easy race.

Winner—B. c. by Exile—Period.
Start good. The first five were driving. Semicolon and Malay were best. The former was fittest and gamest, as he is at present. Malay, away badly, closed a lot of ground, weakened and came again. He had hard luck and will do better. Oraibee is a good youngster, closed strong and should be tabbed. Toluca was coming at finish and made up a lot of ground. The filly is game, true, ready and will favor a route. Mossbrae is an ordinary colt and ran his race. Ventura is only a sprinter. Purniah was hardly bridle-wise. Engea is a dasher, but worth watching. Scratched—Complimentary, 106; E. Come, 114.

Winner—Ch. c, by Rossington—Betsy Broeck.

Start good. Won in a hand gallop; next three driving hard. A sparkling race. Traverser is in marvelous form. He merely played with his field. Nothing could get to him or give him an argument. Linstock's race was excellent. He is ready. Closed a lot of ground after being shut off on stretch turn. Then, too, he was poorly ridden. Twinkler ran a good race, too, and closed stoutly. Watch him. Go To Bed ran his race, considering the handling he got. Tab him, too, Prietos did not run his race. His game is a route. He is ready. Marplot was used too much and stopped at end. He can do better.
